

CHAPTER I

INTRODUCTION

1.1 Background of Study

Central Java especially Magelang are well-known as a region that is still implementing old classic Javanese Culture. In this modern days, everyone who step feet there it feels like times are going back to when the grandparents living in their youth. This does not means technology not exist there. They do using current smartphones there. People there do join nowadays living tren there. But in the same time, People there still embrace their grandparents culture. Smilling to each other even strangers, The Wayang and anothers traditional dance are still performing there, and so many more.

One of the most attractive point of this region is the one and only Candi Borobudur. One of the UNESCO's heritage and the World's biggest buddhist temple. Build in 9th of the Century by Sailendra Dynasty passing through dozens of centuries until this Century the luxurious and majesty of that sculpture still exist.

Considering that Borobudur Temple is the Town's most interest point, so the architecture of Amanjiwo are inspired by the design of The Borobudur Temple which is make the Resort more interesting. So by that people can connect more to the surrounding and it's spiritual culture. The environment there are really peaceful, heartwarming and quiet which gave The Author more good reason to choose the Resort as a my Internship Placement.

Beside all of those points, Amanjiwo Resort knowed has a good quality service and good quality of the ingredients of the product so by that the Internship Program there are able to attract more customers and employees from all around the land even the overseas. Which is giving The Author opportunity to build more relation and connection. Hoping with that new relation could give a good advantage to me in the future.

Experiencing working at a best quality kitchen may cause a better individual skills considering that a good brand always maintain it's quality just like Amanjiwo. The hygiene standard, many type various dishes or even a good quality of technology that the company has could be a good reason for The Author to choose this Resort as a Internship Placement.

During The Author's Internship Period there, The Author working at the Pool Terrace Kitchen that located at the Pool Club. The menu that is available there is a little bit different than another section. Pool Kitchen serves many type of dishes like Indonesian, Western and even Pastries and beverages.

1.2 Industrial Training Objective

1. Provide a crucial bridge between academic student and professional practice.
2. Better connection between student and professional worker so able to gain more skills and connection to develop individual skills.
3. Experience the atmosphere how real kitchen or company works.

1.3 The Benefits of Internship

1.3.1 Benefit for Student

1. Giving a new experience for the student how difficult a real kitchen is.
2. Gain a lot of new insight and different knowledge from each professional practice.
3. Train the communication skills of the student during work.

1.3.2 Benefit foe Ottimmo International

1. Building a new relation between External Company and Ottimmo Internasional.
2. Provide a good experience for the student during internship.
3. Building a new relation from each individual either from Ottimmo Internasional and Company.

1.3.3 Benefit for Amanjiwo

1. Gain a new employee.
2. Gain a new relation between School (Ottimmo Internasional) and Amanjiwo.
3. Able to keep a new employee in the future.