RECIPE BACKGROUND (50 – 100 WORDS)

Pempek is a dish from Palembang, Indonesia. It consist of mackerel fish as main ingredient. The texture is chewy because it contains sago flour. Kepok bananas have a high starch content. The amylose content in kepok bananas is smaller than the amylopectin content. Therefore the starch from kepok bananas is believed to be able to give chewiness to food. For this recipe I'm using kepok banana starch as an alternatif of sago flour.
