

CHAPTER I

INTRODUCTION

1.1 Internship Reason

The reason as to why the author chose the internship program is because through internship, there are so many benefits in the form of knowledge, skills, social network, etc.

The author chose W Hotels Seminyak for 2 main reasons. The first one is because it is located in Bali, which is filled with people from all around the world, a perfect opportunity for the author to study and experience all kinds of culture, language and most importantly, cuisines. Second reason why the author specifically chose W Hotels Seminyak is because it is one of many hotels operated, managed and licensed by Marriott International, a worldwide-famous group known for the five stars hotels under their management, which means that the author get to experience and learn their standards, systems, and procedures firsthand.
