3.5 Events Handled During Internship

1) Lunar New Year (January 20-24 2023)

The Chinese New Year signals the end of the winter period and is a sign of new growth to come. Unlike the Western New Year, which is based on the Gregorian calendar, the Chinese New Year is determined by the Chinese lunar calendar, which means that the official date changes each year. For 2023, the Chinese New Year will start on Sunday 22 January and will celebrate the Year of the Rabbit.
