

CHAPTER I

INTRODUCTION

1.1 Background of the Study

07:AM Bakers is one of the coffee shops located in Canggu, Bali. 07:AM Bakers is one of the relatively new coffee shops in the area. The first reason author chose 07:AM Bakers as a place to do my internship is to increase my relation because author want to expand my friendship and connection in 07:AM Bakers. Second, it is because author admire the uniqueness of 07:AM Bakers, which always follows trends and always innovates every product they have, that thing helps author to make a progress and to develop author. The third reason is because the 07:AM Bakers is a coffee shop that located in Bali. Author opinion, Bali is a place that's rich in tourists and can also show many new things.

Author internship starts from December 13, 2022 to June 13, 2023. It lasts for 6 months. During that 6 months, author got in the pastry training position. author also helped the viennoiserie section even though author focus was in the pastry section.

1.2 The Reasons Author Do the Internship

- Developing skills, apprentices are usually received tasks that give me many new skills and also develop author existing skills.
- Increase self-confidence, in this internship, author will definitely get the basics about the work life and it can also increase my confidence when author enter the work life.
- Work experience, surely author add experience and know how to work in a company and make it easier for us to enter the company or to apply for a job.
- Improving self-quality, surely during author internship, our ability to communicate and teamwork will improve. Not only skills in making pastry, but also communication.

- Adding work experience to CV, wherever now, if author want to apply for a job, the company will definitely ask for CV as one of the main requirements. Of course, by adding internship experience, it will add a plus point to our CV.